Understood Better Each Day

The most successful business man is the one who knows every detail of his business and does not depend upon a pilot for his success. Each day this is better understood. In no business is a detailed knowledge more essential than in the Building Trade. If you want an estimate on any work in my line, I'll be pleased to give you the benefit of my many years experience.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.
Frank A. Bill offers best makes of rubbers, rubber boots and articles. All the new styles and at lowest prices.
Musical Course at Slater Hall.
Seldom has the music loving public had presented to them an opportunity to hear such gifted musical artists at a nominal price as is given in this season's course at Slater Memorial Hall.
Every one of these artists is of the highest standard of excellence, and the performers are recognized as being amongst the greatest musicians in the world.
In George Hamlin, who is to appear here on Friday, Feb. 19th, local lovers of music will find an artist who has few equals among American tenors.
Wherever Mr. Hamlin has been heard —and that comprises the most important cities of this country as well as the great music centers of Europe—he has won the highest praise in concert, oratorio and recital.
"He has been heard here many times," said the Omaha Bee, recently, "and he will be heard here often again. The demonstrations of enthusiasm he was accorded last night offer any criterion of the demand for his services." Mr. Hamlin is a fine, well-rounded, intellectual artist, with a beautiful voice developed by the best of schooling. He is more than a tenor —he is a musician and an artist.
The other two members of the course are the Florence String Quartette, on Wednesday, March 2d, and Miss Katharine Gordon, pianist, on Friday, March 19th.
Course tickets for the three entertainments are $2.50, entitling the holder to a reserved seat. They can be procured at the store of Geo. A. Davis.

Charity Ball Reserved Seats.
There has been a large sale of the reserved seats in the balcony for the charity ball at the armory tonight.
Those not taken are now on sale at slightly reduced prices. The seats are if any remain tonight they will be on sale at the box office at the armory.

Plays Yankee Doodle," by chorus.

HAILE CLUB FLOWER GIRLS.

French Custom to Be Introduced for First Time in Norwich at "The Garden Party."

An entirely unique feature to be introduced at the Broadway Theater on production of "The Garden Party," by Open House and the Haile club will be to have a party of the pretty girls of the Haile club dressed as flower girls and selling fresh flowers in the lobby and through the audience at intermission. All the flower girls will wear white, pink or blue, with charming old-fashioned hats, trimmed with flowers and tulle.
Besides flowers they will also sell a beautiful souvenir programme, containing the complete cast of "The Garden Party," and a history of the Haile club and all that it is doing. The programmes will have covers that are a genuine work of art, a girl's head, hand-painted, and in several styles, that will make a most attractive and valuable keepsake.

As every cent coming from the sale of the flowers and programmes will go to the Haile club, the object becomes a most generous patronage for the pretty flower girls. This will be the only time that this French custom of flower girls has ever been introduced at the Broadway Theater, and indeed in a step in advance of eyes everywhere in adopting this pretty feature, universally prevailing in French theaters.

The Metropolitan Life Insurance Com- pany.

For the information of its army of policy-holders, the Metropolitan Life Insurance company, of New York, has issued a statement of its standing at the end of the year 1905. The facts set forth show that this great insurance organization continues to carry more policies and to distribute greater benefits among the whole people than any other like institution, while its own reserves grow steadily in proportion to its increasing volume of business.

The magnitude of the company's operations is astounding. To fully understand the meaning of the figures dealing in totals for the year, it is necessary to bring them down to the smallest division of time. For example, the mind can scarcely comprehend the significance of statements that the total amount of outstanding policies at the end of the year was $1,561,590,892, but we can easily grasp the no less astounding fact that during the busy business hours of every day in the year an average of 6,344 new policies were issued and paid for. Every day—taking the year 1905 as a basis—more than one million dollars worth of new policies were issued by the company, the full value in cash of policies which had matured and at the end of the year the company paid out to its policy-holders and added to the policy-reserve fund more than $1,000,000. The value of the business done during the year was $1,561, and the company paid during business hours a death claim on the average every sixty-two seconds.

The company owns nearly one hundred million dollars' worth of United States bonds, city bonds and railroad bonds and stocks, more than nine million of bonds and mortgages; more than twenty-two millions of real estate. The value of the company's property, all held as assets available for the payment of its obligations. Nearly ten million policies (9,561,961) are carried by individuals in the Metropolitan Life.
If these policy-holders were gathered in one community they would constitute a city of more than the combined population of the twelve largest cities in the United States.

It is obvious that the Metropolitan Life is controlled and controlled by men of consummate ability, but so are thousands of business organizations that never approach this company in magnitude of operations. It is not merely executive ability, but the ability to inspire and hold public confidence that has counted most in building up this greatest of all insurance companies. The Metropolitan Life deals directly with the people. Its policy from the beginning has been one of entire frankness with the people. No man however, unused to the making of business contracts, can fail to understand exactly what are the terms of his contract with the Metropolitan Life. Every promise of the company is as clear as the English language permits; every obligation of the policy-holder to the company is equally plain. No inflated promises are estimated, no "estimated" benefits; every payment to the company represents the lowest cost of bona fide insurance.

IMPORTANT BUSINESS NEWS

BOOMING MERIDEN.

Endeavor to Make That the Convention City.

The convention committee of the Meriden Business Men's association is using every effort to boom Meriden as a convention city for Meriden already has a reputation in this line, but the Business Men's association is determined to advertise the city far and wide, and hopes to bring a number of important conventions there during the coming year.

The convention committee, of which C. Howard Tryon is chairman, has sent out to the secretaries of all the societies in Meriden the following circular letter:

"The Meriden Business Men's association requests your active co-operation in the movement which is being inaugurated to boom Meriden as 'The Convention City of the State.' Each organization in the city having allied organizations elsewhere in the state or in the country at large, through this letter to consider at its next regular session what it can do to bring to Meriden the next state or general convention of its members. The convention committee of the Business Men's association is preparing literature which may assist in carrying out the campaign for conventions and offers such other efforts as are within its scope. Nature's attractions, hall advantages, transportation facilities, and a hospitable people offer advantage to Meriden as a convention city not to be found in such combination anywhere else in the state. I believe it, think it, talk it, act upon it.

The oldest university in the world is in Peking, China, and is called the "School for the Sons of the Empire." Its antiquity is very great and a gran-dient, constant stone column, 230 feet in height, contains the names of 60,000 graduates.

"I was Afflicted with severe sick headaches for years. They seemed to arise from disordered stomach and impure blood.

"One morning could I arise without dull feeling and pains in my head.

"I tried family physicians' pills, laxatives and blood medicines, all failing to produce the desired result.

"My confidence in medicines was badly shaken, but I thought I would give Hood's Sarsaparilla a trial. In a short time my appetite improved, my headaches diminished, and the desperate feeling gave way to a cheerful spirit.

"My headaches have now cured, and I recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla to all who have been keeping a general store for nineteen years, and in that time have sold a great deal of Hood's Sarsaparilla. My customers universally praise it, and in my own experience it has done what no other medicine could do." R. A. GOTTSCHALK, So. Holland, Ills.

Hood's Sarsaparilla effects its wonderful cures, not simply because it purifies the blood, but because it combines the utmost remedial values of more than 20 different ingredients, each greatly strengthened and enriched by the peculiar combination.
These ingredients are the very remedies that successful physicians prescribe for the same ailments, and all these ingredients are contained in Hood's Sarsaparilla. It is not a substitute for any other medicine, but a good preparation said to be "superior to any other medicine in its class." Get Hood's Sarsaparilla today. In small bottles or large bottles. Bottles, 30c. and 50c.

THREE CARLOADS OF Horses

Among them are fifteen pair of large horses weighing 3000 a pair and all good colors. Forty farm horses, ponies and trotters. These are all fresh, sound young horses from the state of Ohio. You know that is the best breeding country for horses in the United States. I only handle the best horses that they can raise, with plenty of quality and plenty of bone. I know that I can undersell any man that is in the business in the state.
Don't pay $300 for a horse that looks like a good one, but come to my stable and I will convince you that I can sell you a better horse than any other man in the state of Connecticut. I have
